ANNOUNCEMENT

Launching of the Post Graduate School

The Vice Chancellor informs students, lecturers and the non-teaching staff that the official launching of the Renewed Post Graduate School will take place on Monday 23rd January 2017 at the Amphi 1000 of the University of Dschang as from 8.30 am.

This launching ceremony will consist, among others, of the presentation of the new framework of the Post Graduate School and the selection criteria in the research cycles, the presentation of the Post Graduate School Organigram and those in charge of the various "Dschang School of ...", the opening lectures on the research challenges in the Cameroonian and African contexts, etc.

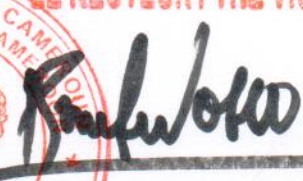

Being a symbol of revitalizing the organization and management of the research cycles in the University of Dschang, this launching is holding after the publication of the list of students authorized to register for Master's II and PhD programmes, while at the same time marking the official beginning of academic activities in these cycles.

The Vice Chancellor counts on the participation of all the members of the University community for the success of this event.
