

Dschang, le 3.0..MAI..2017
on the

N° 1016/17/UDS/FS/DSST/D/VDPSAA/CS/DST/Coordo

Announcement

The Dean of the Faculty of Sciences informs the university community that in line with activities marking the end of the academic session for the Professional Masters in Applied geological engineering, Mines and petroleum.

A conference will be organized under the theme “Analysis of the stability of mining slope: Methodological approach and application, the case of the iron field of Nkout (Cameroon)”

This conference will take place on Monday 5th June 2017 at 10.00am prompt at the University auditorium and will have as guest speaker, Dr Kouayep Sylvain, former student of the University of Dschang and the School of Mines in Paris who is presently working at the Ministry of Mines and Technological Development. He is also a consultant at the Victoria Oil and gas Company.

The presence of all students in engineering sciences and earth science is imperative.

Moreover, the public defense of Master's dissertations will begin immediately after the conference.

CC

- CAB/D
- VDPSAA
- VDSSE
- CS
- Dept/Coordo
- Sclarité
- SPDER
- Affichage
- chrono

Pour le Doyen et par Ordre
Le Vice-Doyen Chargé de la Programmation et du Suivi des Activités Académiques

YEMELE DAVID
Maître de Conférences