ANNOUNCEMENT

Launching of university olympiads of CAMES 2018

The vice chancellor of the university of Dschang informs registered students of the Masters and PhD courses of his institution that the African Council and Malgache for Higher Education (CAMES) has recently launched university olympiads of CAMES.

This has to do with a competition between university students of the CAMES member states including the University of Dschang in the following domains: law, management, computer, bioethics, environment and sport science. Interested students have the possibility to register online before the 30th of October 2017 through the following address www.olympiades.ecames.org.

The CAMES university Olympiades which will take place in May 2018 in Ouagadougou at Burkina Faso have as objective to support the search for talents, promote qualitative culture and the promotion of values promoted by CAMES in the university milieu.
